HUMAN TRAFFICKING: A NON-PARTISAN COMMUNITY CRISIS

The exploitation of people for commercial sex or labor is an ugly truth in our community and around the world. Nearly 8000 girls are trafficked yearly in San Diego County, generating over $850 million annually by local gangs. Of trafficked victims, 80% within San Diego County are born in the United States and not trafficked across the Mexican border. This is happening in our own back yard.

Please join us for a discussion and LEARN how you can stand up, speak out and make a difference.
